Colossians 3:15

This Week's Bottom Line:

We can make peace
with others.

Memory Verse:

So let us do all we can to live in peace. And let us work hard to build up one another.

Romans 14:19, NIV

Life App:

Peace—Proving you care more about each other than winning an argument

Family Activities:

Think it Out

Read 2 Corinthians 13:11

Think about the last argument or disagreement you had with someone. What was it about?

Peace takes work. It's easy to get angry. It's much harder to work towards peace. Paul included these words at the end of his letter to the church in Corinth.. Paul tells us to work, to help, to agree, and to live in peace.

So, what was your last argument about and who was it with? Do you need to apologize for something you said or did when you argued? Ask God to help you do the right thing, to say what you need to say so you can work towards peace.

Peace Plates

Sometimes the people you live with can be the hardest people to make peace with. Ask an adult to help you find a thin paper plate, some tape, and some watercolor paints or markers. Have them place the tape on the plate to create a peace sign. Now fill in the entire plate with color. Once you are finished, peel off the tape to reveal your "peace plate." Place this in the middle of your family's kitchen table and at dinner, use the plate to point at each person and allow everyone to share a time when they chose peace!

Remember to choose to make peace with everyone!

Directions: How many times can you make the word "PEACE" out of the letters below?
HINT: Cross out each letter as you use it.

How many times did you find peace? _____

So let us do all we can to live in peace. And let us work hard to build up one another.
