Kindness—Showing others
they are valuable by how you treat them

Family Activities:

Story Time

Read Luke 10:25-37

Jesus would often tell stories to help His audience understand His teaching. Today you are reading about The Good Samaritan.

Bottom line is that the Samaritan felt sorry for the man and showed kindness, even though they were very different from one another. He stopped and helped the man. He saved his life.

Jesus ends His story by saying, 'Go and do as he did.'

Grab a piece of paper and draw a picture of this story in 2020. When you finish, write, "Be kind to people who are different from you" on the page. Share this picture with your family and talk about ways you "go and do as he did" and show kindness to others this week.

Kindness Matters

Read Romans 13:10

When Jesus was talking about loving your neighbor, He wasn't just talking about the people who live in your neighborhood. Neighbor includes pretty much anyone and everyone you see each day.

Kindness is showing others how valuable they are by how you treat them.

Jesus said to love others as you love yourself. That means that everyone deserves kindness, even people who look, think, act, and talk differently than you.

Luke 10:25-37

"You are God's chosen people. You are holy and dearly loved. So put on tender mercy and kindness as if they were your clothes. Don't be proud. Be gentle and patient."

Colossians 3:12, NIV
