This Week's Bottom Line: Make the most of what you've been given.

Bible Story:
Golden Slumbers

Parable of the Bags of Gold
Matthew 25:14-30 (NIV)

Memory Verse:

Suppose you can be trusted with something very little. Then you can also be trusted with something very large.

Luke 16:10a, NIV

Life App:

Responsibility—Showing you can be trusted with what is expected of you

Family Activities:

Write it Out

From unique gifts and talents, to a place to live and people that take care of you, to beautiful sunsets, puppies and ice cream!

Before you can make the most of what He's given you, you first must start by recognizing all He's given you and thanking Him for it. For each category below, write at least one or two things that you're thankful for.

Talents I have:

Family members and friends I have:

Material possessions I have:

Experiences I've had:

Responsibility Challenge

Grab a wide rubber band and write the word "EVERYTHING" on it with a ball point pen. If you have trouble writing that small, ask an adult for help. If you don't have any rubber bands, cut out a strip of paper, wrap that around your wrist and tape to secure.

For 24 hours, wear that bracelet as a reminder to commit everything you do, every word, every action, every thought and decision, to God. Stop and pray and ask God to help you and He will! Take the responsibility to follow God and commit everything to Him.

Suppose you can be trusted with something very little. Then you can also be trusted with something very large.

Luke 16:10a, NIV
